GENERAL INFORMATION AND AGREEMENT FOR VENDORS

Please read the following information carefully and sign this vendor agreement.

By signing the Vendor Application & Agreement, you acknowledge that you have thoroughly read and agree to the following:

- 1) Only items listed on the application may be sold at the event. The vendor must be present at the booth throughout the event unless arrangements have been made with event organizers. No booth sharing or soliciting outside booth space. PGO does not supply any tables, lighting, electrical cords, tents, chairs, or storage area.
- 2) Event booth space is limited. Capt. Steve Harman's Poor Girls Open (PGO) will make the final decision regarding vendor/participants to the event and reserves the right to limit booths of a similar type. PGO has the right to decline a vendor if it sees as the vendor is not the right fit for the event. If the application is declined, the check will be returned to vendor.
- 3) Each application is approved by the PGO. Completion of this application does not guarantee acceptance into the event. After we receive the application, and it is received you will receive confirmation of your participation through email. All decisions are FINAL.
- 4) Each vendor is responsible for all sales and financial transactions throughout the event as well as the display and transportation of products to and from the event. Table decorations and signs are the responsibility of the vendor. Vendors are responsible for collecting, reporting, and paying sales tax collected.
- 5) Event set-up and break down times, booth space assignments will be set by the PGO, and I agree to adhere to them. The set up of vendor tables will start at 11am and must be set up by 3pm each day as the weigh-ins start at 4pm. Takedown of tables will occur after 8pm each night and vendor must be vacant by 10pm. If you decide you want to breakdown early, please see a PGO official to do so, otherwise you must remain 'open for business' from 3pm-8pm.
- 6) Any special request must be submitted on the application. We cannot guarantee requests.
- 7) Refunds – cancellations must be made in writing and will be assessed a $15 administration fee. No refunds will be given after August 10, 2024. This event may be cancelled due to extreme weather conditions. If the event is cancelled, refunds will be issued. No refunds will be given due to rain or wind.
- 8) Vendors must describe/list on application all items to be sold. If vendor displays or sells items not listed on application, PGO reserves the right to ask the vendor to leave the event and forfeit booth fee. We DO NOT allow any used items – all items must be new or handmade.
- 9) Liability Waiver and Release: I hereby assume all responsibility for, and risks and hazards of, participation in the rental activity planned by my group. In considerations of the PGO providing permission to use the space requested, I, and all members of my group do hereby release the Bahia Marina LLC, Fish Tales Bar and Grille, PGO, including all officials, officers, sponsors, organizers, supervisors, volunteers, participants, and all other agents, of any and all claims, demands, rights, and causes of action of whatever kind and nature, arising from and by reason of, and all known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen, bodily and personal injuries, damage to property, and the consequences thereof, resulting from participation in the rental activity planned with the PGO. I and all members of my group also agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the PGO, Bahia Marina LLC and Fish Tales Bar and Grille from all claims for bodily and personal injuries, damage to property, and the consequences thereof arising out of my/our negligence or that of my/agents, servants or women pursuant to this rental activity. By reading this information and signing this Vendor/Participant Agreement, you are agreeing to abide by all rules and regulations set forth by the event organizers of the PGO and made a part hereof by reference.
